

END OF QUIET CAMPAIGN WILL SEE FATE OF VARE

Next Tuesday will bring to a close one of the quietest election campaigns that Lower Merion, Narberth and many other sections of Pennsylvania have witnessed in a long time but despite all the lack of pre-election excitement there will be one underlying feature which will invite more than usual interest from the electorate. This will be the fate of Congressman William S. Vare, Republican candidate for the Senate.

Officers to be elected Tuesday at the general election are a United States Senator, a Governor, a Lieutenant Governor, a Secretary of Internal Affairs, and, in this district, a Congressman, a State Senator, and an Assemblyman. In all but the first of these, the candidates of the Republican party are generally conceded their usual sweeping majorities.

Much feeling was aroused against Vare in a bitter primary campaign last spring and some of this still exists. For this reason the Congressman is expected to run behind his ticket in the State and a real contest between him and his Democratic opponent, William B. Wilson, may be anticipated.

Just how Vare will run is uncertain, for no one knows just how much or how little "cutting" of ticket will be done by Republican voters. If the Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Dauphin County organizations turn out for the Congressman full strength, however, local political dopsters foresee victory for him.

Montgomery county in the primaries turned in the biggest single plurality in the State against Vare. Party regularity is a strong point with the Johnson county organization, however, and Vare is expected to go over with the rest of the Republican ticket in Montgomery Tuesday.

The situation in Lower Merion as regards Vare is one which defies predictions. Sentiment here in the primary was particularly strong for Senator Pepper, and when his defeat was announced many voters declared that they would not vote for Vare.

This feeling has worn off somewhat with the intervening months, and now many who declared against Vare will vote for him because they place party regularity and the desire for a Republican majority in the Senate above their personal antagonism to Vare. Still others rather than commit the heresy of splitting their tickets will remain away from the polls. An on top of this there are many independent-thinking voters who, through the

NARBERTH MEMBER

Addresses Rotarians on Subject of Hunters and Hunted.

Langdon C. Odierno, local insurance man, dog fancier and hunter, addressed the weekly meeting of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club at the Cynwyd Club, Tuesday noon.

Mr. Odierno gave one of the most interesting talks heard by the members in many months, and furnished an insight into the habits of wild life. He told of adventures in the hunting of deer, squirrel, quail and wild turkey.

The difference between a pointer and a setter was explained in the course of a discussion of the merits of dogs and the intelligence often displayed by these necessary adjuncts to hunting.

J. A. Miller was chairman of the well-attended meeting. The monthly business meeting will be held Tuesday evening.

LUTHERAN PLAY PLEASURES

The entertainment of last Thursday night at the Lutheran Church was a great success.

The girls, pupils of the National School of Elocution and Oratory, of which Dora A. Shoemaker is principal, held the audience the entire evening.

The audience showed their appreciation by applause after each number, and a generous offering.

The girls showed wonderful training, as well as talent and ability. Now the popular question is: When can they come again?

POLLING PLACES

For the information of Narberth citizens, Our Town publishes herewith the location of the polling places in each of the three voting districts:

District No. 1—Elm Hall, Forest avenue.
District No. 2—Narberth National Bank, Essex avenue.
District No. 3—Boy Scout House, Elmwood avenue.

NARBERTH MAN IS AMONG CANDIDATES

Vote

AIDS WELFARE DRIVE

In the list of candidates to be voted on for State and national offices next Tuesday Narberth has one resident as her representative. Edward S. Haws, of 109 Dudley avenue, is a candidate on the Democratic ticket for assemblyman from this district.

At nearly every election the borough has at least one resident on the ticket. In most cases, the Democratic organization picks a Narberth man who, although having little chance of election in this strongly Republican territory, yet usually polls a large complimentary vote among his neighbors.

So next Tuesday it is felt sure that a good part of the Republican bloc will split their ballots so as to back up a local resident—in this case one who has been active in borough affairs for many years. Mr. Haws was born at Joanna Heights, Berks county, in 1873, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Patterson Haws. His father was a school teacher and country storekeeper, raising a family of 12 children, six of whom became school teachers.

As a young man Mr. Haws went to Montana, shortly after that State was admitted to the Union, and stayed there a year. In 1897 he married Miss Ada Louise Ely, of New York, and settled in Philadelphia, engaging in the business of a contracting plasterer.

In 1902, at which time his Main Line patronage had grown to considerable size, he moved to Narberth. He identified himself with the Narberth Presbyterian Church and for 17 years was treasurer of the Sunday School. For the past 16 years he has been a member of the board of trustees.

Mr. Haws has had some part in nearly all local activities. He was one of the founders of the Y. M. C. A. and was on the board of trustees until the sale of the building. He has been interested in the work of the schools and in civic affairs. More recently he represented the borough in the $15,000,000 drive for aged Presbyterian ministers. He is a member of the local committee for the Welfare drive.

On January 1, 1924, he was appointed postmaster at Narberth by President Wilson, and held that office more than two terms, until August 6, 1922. During his administration carrier service was established, the office was advanced to second class, and moved to its present location.

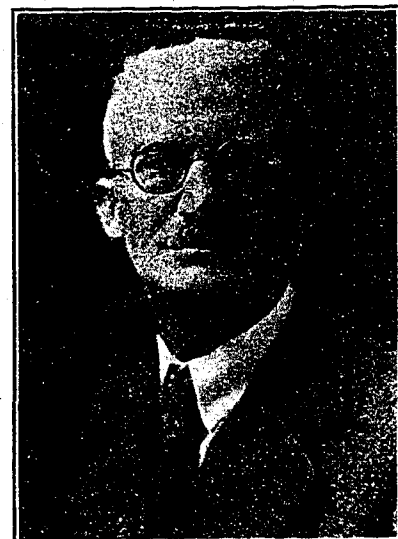

He has two children, both of whom live in Narberth, Mrs. John C. Nash and Mrs. Arthur L. Cooke. A brother, W. Howard Haws, resides on Dudley avenue, as does his sister, Mrs. Hervey C. Keim.

To "Our Town's" interviewer he boasted of being a life-long Jeffersonian Democrat. His outdoor hobby is baseball; his indoor sport pinocle.

Mr. Vare's unpopularity about these parts will result in many split ballots. If the editor may editorialize on the front page, he expresses the hope that the splitting will be made to include the majority of Republican votes to be turned over to Narberth's only representative at this election.

For, after all, partisanship does not always sway the casting of the ballot!

NARBERTH'S CANDIDATE

Edward S. Haws, of 109 Dudley avenue, Democratic candidate for Assemblyman. Mr. Haws is ex-Postmaster and a hard worker in the affairs of his political party throughout the county and State.

"The direct primaries are the most important phase of our political system," Edward Logan, professor of political science and economics, at the University of Pennsylvania, under Dr. Clyde L. King, told the 500 members of the Montgomery County League of Women Voters in session last Thursday afternoon at Norristown.

Mr. Logan also contended that to do away with the direct primaries would be a step backward. "The primaries is the one process by which the individual rather than the party is represented."

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS MONDAY, NOT TUESDAY

Election Causes Change in Date—Mrs. Griscorn to Speak.

All take note of the change in the day of the next Community Club meeting. Since our regular date conflicts with Election Day and since Elm Hall is a polling place, we will meet on Monday, November 1, at 2:30 P. M. Mrs. Everett Griscorn will tell us about "Our Birds and How to Know Them." Lantern slides will be used to assist in the introduction. Besides being an enthusiast, Mrs. Griscorn is an expert in her field and an interesting speaker as well. All bird-lovers will surely want to be present, while the rest should come and be converted. Mrs. J. E. Burrell is to be hostess.

The Mothers' Council seems to be filling a real need, as the report of its meeting last Monday night, as printed elsewhere in this issue, plainly testifies. That was the hope of the Education Committee in starting the movement. Its next meeting on Monday, November 8, should be most interesting and most helpful. On that evening the fifth to the eighth grades will meet for regular classes from 7 to 9 in the Junior High School.

See that your radios are in good order on Thursday, November 11, for the Community Club is broadcasting from WFI between 3 and 4 P. M.

Mrs. H. A. Jacobs, chairman of civics, is anxious that the club should compete in the tree planting contests planned by the State and County Federations. If you have planted, or caused to be planted, any trees during the last year, or if you plant any before May 1, 1927, please report promptly to Mrs. Jacobs, but be sure you have a witness, or your good deed won't count.

One statement in the club report for last week should be corrected. Mrs. C. P. Fowler, so long a mainstay of the Community Club, has not resigned, but is still a member in fact as well as in spirit.

Hold open the evening of November 19 for the dinner dance which the ladies of the Board of Directors are giving for the building fund. The dinner will be cooked by the committee themselves and will be so good that you will not wish to be distracted by the cabaret acts that go with it.

MOVE TO ABOLISH SHINGLE ROOFING

New Ordinance Will Reduce Fire Hazard; Lower
Insurance Rate.

HEARING DATE SOON

The Ordinance and Law Committee of the Borough Council, of which Councilman Kaerber is chairman, and Councilmen Wood and Redifer are the other two members, proposes to hold soon a public hearing with reference to the so-called "shingle-roof" ordinance, which has been under discussion in one form and another in the borough for the past two years. This ordinance, if it should be passed, would affect every building in the borough and would provide that no new shingle roofs could be laid, no old roofs could be repaired with shingles if the repairs exceeded 15 per cent. of the total roof, and that all shingle roofs would have to be eliminated entirely within 20 years of the passage of the ordinance.

It will be seen from this summary that this is a matter directly affecting the interests and the pocketbooks of all property owners. It is, therefore, desirable that everyone should keep in mind the coming public hearing, the date of which will be announced soon, and prepare to attend and express an opinion. In the absence of such an expression of opinion, it would be assumed by

MOTHERS' COUNCIL HAS GET ACQUAINTED PARTY

In Library of Jr. H. S.—First Meeting of New Club.

The library of the Junior High School looked very gay and attractive for the Get-Acquainted Party held there on Monday evening by the Mothers' Council for the teachers and mothers of our children. From all reports it was most successful, for the mothers and teachers now know each other better.

After the gracious introductory remarks of Mrs. L. C. Douglass, president of the Women's Community Club, as to the reason and aim of the new organization, Miss Wetherill, Miss Hoover and Mrs. Elsbree told plain common sense ways in which we could help the school and the children. Mr. Wilson closed the informal talks by promising his support and help.

The Mothers' Council can with modesty feel that it has made a very satisfactory beginning in its endeavor to correlate the home and the school in our community. At least 150 mothers are now acquainted with the principal and the teachers. By general indications the desire of the mothers to become members of the Council showed their interest and their willingness to co-operate with the teachers. The cordiality and friendliness shown by both teacher and mothers was most gratifying.

At the request of the Mothers' Council, Principal Wilson consented to hold a regular two school session of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades in the Junior High School from 7 to 9 P. M. on Monday, November 8. All Narberth parents are cordially invited to visit the school at this "special session" and see just how it is done these days.

Membership in the Mothers' Council entails no financial obligation. Just send your names and addresses to Mrs. C. W. Bates, 403 North Narberth avenue (Narberth 1641-W) and meet with the second Monday evening of each month.

CHOOSE WORKERS IN LOCAL DRIVE

Welfare Campaign Under Pressure to Finish
in Time

NEED MORE TO CANVASS

The organization for the Welfare Federation drive in Narberth was formed this week. Daniel Leitch last week was appointed organizer for the territory and had chosen the large proportion of his workers.

A delay in getting the workers started was experienced due to the lateness of the Main Line organization in turning over the cards to the borough division. Mr. Leitch was not notified until the middle of last week and set about at once to choose the workers.

A good committee has been formed, but additional residents are needed so that Narberth may make a good showing. Work must be rushed over the week-end as the campaign closes next Monday.

The following district workers were announced yesterday:
Mrs. Fletcher W. Stites, T. Noel Butler, W. D. R. Evans, Isaac E. Leech, John R. Hall, Edward S. Haws, Charles C. Mason, Mrs. A. W. Ward, Adam H. Wilson, A. K. Lefevre, Langdon C. Odierno, Fred Walzer, Mrs. George A. Mahl, Mrs. Kern W. McHose, Harold C. Fenno.

William J. Bailey, Henry A. Frye, Edward K. Bauer, George H. Henry, Harold M. Greist, H. Ronald Paige, Horton Williamson, J. Baird Caldwell, J. Bertram Nesper, Robert J. Edgar, Alfred Y. Reinking, Daniel Leitch, E. H. Sickles, Mrs. Horace E. Ruch, Walter B. Taitt, Miss Lillian Compton, Miss Charlotte Hillegas, Kenneth L. M. Pray.

The following open letter has been sent by the Main Line Citizens' Association to all Main Line newspapers, to correct a rumor that they are not behind the Welfare drive:

GIRL SCOUT WEEK

Today is the beginning of National Girl Scout week. Every Girl Scout is celebrating the first day of Girl Scout week today by doing some good deed for her mother and perhaps for her whole family.

Many of the Narberth troop have planned to take entire charge of the dinner for tonight. Not only will they prepare and clear it away, but they will plan the meal and do all the marketing.

Tomorrow will be Girl Scout Sunday. The Narberth troop will be present in a body at the morning services in the Narberth Presbyterian Church. Mr. Van Ness has planned to conduct a special service for them and the girls will take part in the program.

Everyone is most cordially invited to attend church and the Girl Scouts are planning to be there 100 per cent. Come early if you expect to find a seat.

NARBERTH JURORS PICKED

The names of five Narberth residents have been drawn for duty on the Petit Jury. They are:

Edward S. Haws, 107 Dudley avenue, Samuel Wiley and Barbara Shand, week of November 15.

JUNIORS MEET

The Narberth Junior Community Club held its first meeting of the season Thursday evening, the 21st, at the home of Miss Peg Burrell, 507 Valley View road. Mrs. Barker, State chairman of the Juniors, spoke on the relation of Junior and Senior Clubs, and gave the girls pointers on matters about which they were in doubt.

Some of the girls gave a short sketch, and refreshments were served.

Many interesting events have been planned by the Juniors, including a Thanksgiving dance. Thursday saw the first of a series of card parties under the girls' auspices. It was held in the home of Mrs. Wallis Boileau, Jr., 210 Wayne road.

It is planned to make these social interesting. Everyone is welcome to these card parties. The fee of 50 cents is charged to be laid aside for a building fund, necessitated by the sale of the Y. M. C. A. building on Forest avenue, old meeting place.

"WHY SHOULD I GIVE?"

This is the week when the volunteer canvassers for the Welfare Federation are calling on all residents of the Main Line to contribute to the fund which will finance the activities of 150 philanthropic organizations in Philadelphia and vicinity during the year 1927. The real question that has to be answered, in the mind, at least, of everyone who is asked to contribute is: "Why should I give?"

The answer to that question lies in the fact that these philanthropic agencies do perform a vital service to every member of the community regardless of his own individual prosperity. If all of these agencies of relief should cease their activities, the sum total of unrelieved misery, destitution and even squalor would menace, within a comparatively short time, the life, health and happiness of the entire community. Enlightened self-interest, if no other reason, should convince everyone of the necessity of contributing something to this campaign.

There are other much higher motives for contributing. Few people have escaped the sorrows, anxieties and calamities of ordinary life and have found them difficult to bear, regardless of financial circumstances. The feeling of human sympathy for those who have only similar difficulties, but who lack entirely, not only the financial means, but the simple rudiments of friendly contact, should cause everyone to contribute out of sympathy alone.

Sometimes the impression encountered is that all of the money raised by the Welfare Federation is expended in and for the city of Philadelphia. That is not the case. An adequate proportion is directly expended to aid various organizations of the Main Line. Among the Main Line beneficiaries of the Welfare Federation are: The Americanization Committee of Ardmore; the Haverford Community Centre; 15 troops of Girl Scouts; 14 troops of Boy Scouts; the Main Line Citizens' Association, with its multifold activities, including the maintenance of five district nurses.

As an example of the work accomplished here on the Main Line, it is necessary only to select the activities of the visiting nurse committee of the Main Line Citizens' Association, which covers a territory of 38 square miles. During the year 1925 the visiting nurses made 12,469 visits into homes of all classes. In making these visits, the nurses traveled 30,000 miles.

PLANE LANDED SAFELY

Disabled Bomber Landed on Roberts Estate.

Tuesday, three army bombing planes swooped over the house-tops and factory roofs of the West Manayunk district. The U. S. A. 88489, commanded by Lieutenant Edwin R. McReynolds, and manned by a crew of four men, developed engine trouble as the machines were cruising up the course of the Schuylkill River.

The two companion planes, seeing the danger to those in the first plane, hovered near as it sought a landing place. The roar of the engines soon attracted hundreds of factory workers and housewives.

As the planes swept low over the river, then glided over the housetops, there was no satisfactory explanation for such tactics. But after 15 minutes, the three planes soared away and skimmed over the west side of the Schuylkill. Finally, just as the disabled plane was about to make a forced landing, the pilot discovered the broad fields of the Roberts estate.

A perfect landing was made. Not even a foot of the sod on the alfalfa field that surrounds the tall brick tower of the estate was torn up.

The two companion planes, still in attendance, glided onto the field behind the disabled bomber, picked up its crew and hopped off again for the Philadelphia Navy Yard, where they are stationed. Lower Merion Township police were asked to place a guard over the crippled plane.

BATTLERS TIE LIONS

On Friday evening, October 22, the Presbyterian Pilots met the Baptist Boosters and each team won a game. The first game was forfeited to the Boosters, due to the fact that the Pilots were late coming on deck.

The Baptist Battlers fought their way to a tie with the Lutheran Lions when, on Monday night, they captured three games from the Methodist Marathons.

The previous high score for the season was shattered when H. T. Smedley, captain of the Battlers, battered down 198 pins in his third game Monday evening.

SOUR KROUT SUPPER

The annual Sour KROUT Supper offered Narberth by its Lutherans will be held at the Lutheran Church Thursday evening, November 18. Tickets are announced at 65 cents.

Instead of candy, make sweets to tuck in the school lunch boxes by grinding together in the meat chopper one pound of figs, one pound of dried prunes or seedless raisins (or both), and one pound of nut-meats. Mix thoroughly, roll out until about half an inch thick on a board dredged with confectioner's sugar, and cut into small pieces. Or make into balls, rolled in the sugar. Wrap in paraffin paper to keep.

This is your paper, and your advice is appreciated.

WILL HOLD HEARING ON SHINGLE ROOFING

Council that there was no general feeling of opposition to the proposed ordinance.

In the case of several other ordinances affecting properties, incidents have developed in which the property owners were later very much troubled by the restrictions of the ordinance and have indignantly protested to Council, saying that they had had no opportunity to know of the passage of such an ordinance. This public hearing will be the opportunity for everyone to appear and express an opinion.

The reason for the proposal to pass such an ordinance is that the ordinance would be the final step required by the Fire Underwriters' Association by means of which the fire insurance rates for the borough of Narberth could be considerably reduced. The borough is now rated for fire insurance purposes in Class D and if this ordinance, together with other measures which have been taken in the past, were adopted, the borough would be advanced to Class B or Class A for fire insurance purposes.

The actual saving in dollars and cents per year on the average residential property fire insurance might not be great, but the aggregate saving for the entire borough would be large and the indirect benefits of enjoying the lower fire insurance rating on the Main Line would be many.

This same ordinance came to a vote before the former Council, more than a year ago, and was defeated at that time by a 4 to 3 vote. The members of the present Council are open-minded with reference to it, and will be greatly influenced by whatever expressions of public opinion are brought out at the public hearing or otherwise.

The date of the hearing will soon be announced.

RECITAL PLEASED

The organ recital held in the Baptist Church of the Evangel Thursday evening pleased an appreciative audience. It consisted of a religious-classical program in two parts.

Mr. Chester H. Norton, church organist, and Miss Ruth McCannell, soprano of the Baptist Church Quartet, were the featured artists. The program included the work of masters such as Saint-Saens, Haydn, Dvorak, Borowski, Mendelssohn, Nevin, and Boellman, and was well rendered.

WELFARE DRIVE

Main Line Citizens' Association wish to state that the organization in the past year has been able to meet in an adequate way the current needs of the community. The visiting nurses have been able to answer all calls received for care during the year, and from the tentative budget approved by the Federation for the year 1927, it is hoped to increase the service to meet the growth of the community.

It has been brought to the attention of the Main Line Citizens' Association that a report has been circulated that the Welfare Federation of Philadelphia, of which the association is a member agency, would not allow the request of the association for an increased budget to provide additional nursing facilities.

There is always the opportunity for the expansion of any work, and while this association did not receive last year the maximum asked for, they did receive sufficient additional funds to enable them to carry on the work of the visiting nurses, so that in no case were the needs of the community neglected. Every call which has been received at headquarters has been answered, and the Main Line Citizens' Association not only feels that they are getting the heartiest co-operation from the Welfare Federation of Philadelphia, and have been relieved of the drudgery of raising funds, but are enthusiastically supporting in every way in their power, the campaign for next year's funds.

Secretary.

You Will Get Your Coal
When Promised

Everyone is likely to be skeptical of the promises the coal dealer makes, for so often through reasons he cannot prevent, deliveries are not made at just the time promised.

We feel that with our increased trucking facilities and the time we used to devote to building materials now concentrated upon coal, we have perfected our organization to the extent of being able to keep all promises.

The rush of the past few days occasioned by the sudden appearance of cold weather has proved this to us. If you will call us the next time you want coal, name the day you want it, we shall be glad to prove it to you.

CHICKEN THIEVES

Still Busy in Lower Merion—Glad-wyné Man Gets Warrant When Twenty-two Go.

Horse thieves are gone but chicken thieves are still busy in exclusive Lower Merion suburbs.
Witness the fact that on Tuesday
James Bullock, 231 Leverick street, Philadelphia, was arrested on the charge of purloining chickens from Thomas C. Murray in Gladwyne.

When Mr. Murray found 22 of his pullets missing, he swore out a warrant for Bullock on information given him by a neighbor. It was served by Officer Brown.

Given a hearing by Magistrate
Kromer, Bullock was held in $500 bail for criminal court.

FINED FOR PARKING

B. S. Thorpe, 5012 Penn street,
Philadelphia, was fined Tuesday by Squire Kromer for illegal parking on Ardmore avenue, Ardmore.
Police have been making an active campaign against motorists who park in prohibited areas on Ardmore and Crickett avenues, and the number of violators have decreased markedly.

OLD FOLKS CELEBRATE

A Hallowe'en party for the old folks, inmates of the Presbyterian Home on City avenue, Bala, was given there Monday evening. Miss Garver, a director at the home, was in charge.

It always pays to advertise.

The Bryn Mawr Hospital was one of many medical institutions praised by Dr. Franklin H. Martin,
Director General of the American College of Surgeons, in an address before one of the largest assemblies of surgeons and hospital people on record, at the Hospital Standardization Conference of the Clinical Congress of American College of Surgeons which opened Tuesday in Montreal.

"The American College of Surgeons greatly appreciates this opportunity of officially presenting to the people of the United States and Canada the list of approved hospitals of thirty-five beds and over," Dr. Martin stated. "These hospitals have adopted the fundamental requirements for the right care of the patient and the broadest community service, as provided for in the minimum standard requirements laid down by the American College of Surgeons, an international organization charged with the responsibility of the great movement known as hospital standardization."

"The right care of the patient comes first in every hospital. Years of investigation and study has proved to the American College of Surgeons that this can only be assured through the acceptance and carrying out of the principles as laid down in Hospital Standardization,

STEWART ELECTED CLASS PRESIDENT

L. M. High Seniors Pick Old Junior Leader and Grid Captain.

TEAM WINS MUD FIGHT

Wendell B. Stewart, of Cynwyd, captain of the Lower Merion High football team, was elected president of the senior class of the high school Friday morning following a nomination meeting at morning assembly exercises. He was president of the Junior Class last year and was the only one of the third year leaders to be returned to leadership this year.

Stewart is also president of the Hi-Y Club and last year won his letters on the track team. He registered points for the squad in jump events.

The other officers elected by the Seniors were Vice President Josephine Landis, Secretary Ruth Caldwell and Treasurer James Knipe.

Hi-Y Club Meets.

The former officers of the Class of '27 in its Junior year were President W. B. Stewart, Vice President Dorothy Green, Secretary Gladys Dautle and Treasurer Francis Shoemaker.

Ralph Gleaton, former Southern football player and graduate of the Yale Divinity School, was the guest of the Lower Merion Hi-Y Club last Thursday evening at its first dinner meeting of the season. Mr. Gleaton, student secretary of the Philadelphia and vicinity Y. M. C. A.'s, took as the theme of his speech the wrestling match between Jacob and a taunting stranger.

The new business of the year was brought before the club by Mr. Edwin D. Peake, Secretary of Hi-Y Clubs of Philadelphia.

West Chester High received a 14-0 setback in football, at West Chester, last Saturday afternoon, despite the return of its luminary, Jerry Harmon, at the hands of the Lower Merion eleven. Harmon, picked for All-Suburban full-back honors last year, has been suffering from an infected hand and arm since the opening of the current season, and last Saturday's fray was the first in which he has played.

Ernie Mandes, Sophomore back and brother of Lou Mandes, of last year's L. M. team, proved the stellar mud horse of the day, flashing unusual form with his spectacular runs through the virtual sea of mud caused by rain. Ernie, should he continue his good work, looks like a sure corner of the future.

J. Miller Acting Captain.

Jack Miller, versatile Merion back, kept up his fine ploughing and dodging and with Mandes made things hum throughout the entire clash. "Jake" registered a touchdown, acted as captain, and booted two extra points across, besides making an eel out of himself in the mud. "Matt" Miller, his brother and varsity centre, shared in the victory on defense and offensive, cracking up West Chester formations before they had much of a chance to form.

While the West Chester fray proved an off-day for the Ardmore eleven, not one first down was made by West Chester throughout the entire contest. The spirits of the home eleven seemed dampened with the wet weather and fumbles were prevalent in the first half. The Merion aggregation certainly lost their title as "ball hawks," for every fumble was recovered by the Zimmerman eleven. No scoring was done in the first half, largely due to the fumbles of the Merion backs.

Score in Third Period.

Between halves the Adam juggernauts woke up. The L. M. men came out on the field with a different attitude and promptly registered two touchdowns in the third period.

A fumble again threw another Lower Merion chance to the winds. In the fourth period two drives down the field resulted, one in a fumble, the other in the end of the game with the ball on West Chester's one-yard line.

West Chester played the best game of the season against the Lower Merion eleven. Wet weather, mud and a sad field, and the return of West Chester's luminary, Jerry Harmon, counted heavily against the Maroon and White. Clearly, all the breaks went to West Chester.

Tomorrow, October 30, Lower Merion meets Abington on the Ardmore field. Abington, thus far undefeated, and using a new system of play—one of many shifts and deceptive bucks—should afford an interesting game to the spectators.

CYPRESS--THE WOOD ETERNAL

The amount of money we want to invest in any article usually prompts us to decide either in favor of article for short life only, with the accompanying necessity for frequent repairs and new parts; or the one with a higher first cost, but with its more or less permanent features attached.

LUMBER is NOT the exception. Nature has supplied us with trees, some of them producing lumber that will last twenty years or more in the ground, and others, one or two years. The number of knots in any board does not determine its life, but the "Heart Wood" lasts and the sapwood (light-colored section just under the bark) does not have the lasting qualities.

We have, and recommend, CYPRESS for all exterior work. It rates in the twenty-year class.

quietness of the campaign, have lost interest completely in the election, and will not appear to vote.

When the anti-Vare vote, which will be eliminated for these reasons, is taken and compared to the straight ticket vote of the day-in and day-out organization workers in the township, there is every indication that Vare should get a majority here.

"Still you can never tell. Lower Merion is a region of independent thinkers in politics," declared one observer, active in township politics, commenting on the situation. "Many will not let party regularity guide them. It would not surprise me to see a lot of anti-Vare sentiment."

Such opposition to Vare as has been uncovered by organization workers is reported stronger among the male voters than the women. This came as a surprise, for Pepper sentiment in the primary was popularly supposed to be greater with the women voters.

"Many of the women were anti-Vare in the spring," said one woman prominent in independent political activities, "but I believe the number is quite reduced now. Mr. Wilson will pull a good vote throughout the State, but I don't think he will get a large one here. The Republican plea for a party man to support the Coolidge majority in the Senate will effect many who would otherwise defect."

While the status of Congressman Vare with the voters of Lower Merion may be called either favorable or uncertain, depending upon one's sympathies, there is little doubt of his stand in Narberth. The women voters there are anti-Vare and are working against him. As they predominate in the borough electorate, it will be surprising if Wilson is not given a majority there.

Narberth has always been of independent leanings. This combined with the fact that it numbers more Democrats in proportion than in township voting districts, explains its stand. Narberth has been drawn upon pretty consistently for candidates for the different county and State Democratic tickets.

One Democrat, Richard J. Hamilton, of Ardmore, who is running for Congress against Henry W. Watson, is expected to draw a large complimentary vote in both Lower Merion and Narberth. He is widely known as head of the Merion Title and Trust Company and is an active member of the Lower Merion School Board.

Republican organization workers were active all over the county the past week in interests of their ticket.

Their watchword has been the keynote sounded by Mrs. Dobson Altemus Eastman, president of Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women, in her campaign speeches namely: "The time to fight over candidates is at the primaries. At the general election every Republican should support the whole ticket."

Get-togethers of Republican workers were held this week in various parts of the county. Yesterday there was a luncheon in Norristown for the Montgomery County Republican Committee. It was attended by the committee men and women from the 16 districts in Lower Merion and Narberth. The candidates on the Republican ticket appeared as speakers.

Last night there was a meeting in the township building at Ardmore of the Lower Merion Republican Committee. Reports were heard from the diffent districts. D K.

AN APOLOGY

Our Town wishes to apologize to its readers and to Chris Koch, for an error which appeared in its issue of October 16. In an expression of regret at the death of Dr. Clarence T. Faries, which appeared in Mr. Koch's advertising space, a compositor on Our Town's printing staff permitted obviously out-of-place business matter to remain. This was not authorized by Mr. Koch; the fault is Our Town's.

REPORT TYPHOID CASE

A very mild epidemic of whooping cough is reported in the township this week by the Lower Merion Board of Health. Ten of the 11 new contagious disease cases in the township are of this disease. The other case is one of typhoid fever. Barbara Vail, 11, of 344 Penn street, Wynnewood, is the victim of it.

NEW COMMITTEEMAN

Announcement was made this week of the appointment of James M. Wark, of 119 Elmwood avenue, to the post of Republican Committeeman of voting district number three (the south side.)

Mr. Wark succeeds J. Bertram Nesper, who resigned July 20, when he became Postmaster. The resignation, however, was not made known until this week, when the appointment was announced.

"GOING TO THE DOGS"

Montgomery county, along with the rest of the State, is rapidly going to the dogs, according to the latest dog license figures from the State Bureau of Animal Industry.

Montgomery county had 14,790 licensed dogs on September 1, while Allegheny led with 27,980, and Cameron lagged with 390.

"All persons are prohibited from firing any guns, pistols, rifles or other firearms when in the borough limits, under penalty of Ten Dollars ($10.00) for each and every offense, one-half of the penalty to be paid to the informer."

"No person shall hunt or kill any song or other birds, nor destroy their nests, nor hunt or kill any rabbit, squirrel or opossum, under penalty of Ten Dollars ($10.00) for every offense, one-half the penalty to be paid to the informer."

Fire Company Discusses Delinquents at Meeting.

There are 313 delinquent members of the Narberth Fire Company.

This was brought out in the course of the October meeting of the fire company Tuesday night. Means of paying an outstanding indebtedness of over $400 were discussed. This sum represents unpaid bills for apparatus and uniforms for Narberth's volunteer firemen.

If each of the 313 delinquent members pays his dues, in the trifling amount of $3 for the year, the firefighters will have the financial backing to which they feel they are entitled.

Announcement

There are certain ideals and services in conducting a drug business which mean a great deal to patrons, but which are frequently ignored or lost sight of by the druggist. For instance, the highest attainment of the real drug store is the preparation of medicines on prescriptions of physicians. Nothing is more important than that with us.

Nor is it within the province of the drug store with ideals to push the sale of proprietary preparations of various kinds which encourage self-diagnosis and self-medication on the part of the user. Whenever you are ill enough to need medicine you are ill enough to need the advice of your doctor.

In these columns we shall point out from week to week why this is true—and why you should have your prescriptions filled by a drug store such as ours which specializes in this important work.

DEFEAT OF VARE IS A PARTY NECESSITY

The self-respecting Republicans of Pennsylvania are confronted with an issue which extends beyond State lines and relates to the fitness of their party as an instrument for managing the affairs of the national Government.

They must decide whether it is better to send to the Senate a Republican who is not properly equipped and who spent enormous sums to secure his nomination than to defeat that man and thus demonstrate to the country at large that Pennsylvania Republicanism is willing to forego a possible temporary political advantage for the sake of the greater good of the party as a whole in the years to come.

The majority against Vare in the primaries was 257,000. He carried only Philadelphia and Dauphin Counties, and more than one-half of his total vote was polled in Philadelphia. He was nominated because of a divided opposition, and he would not have been nominated at all if he had been opposed by a single candidate, because the Republicans of the State know what his limitations are.

In addition to his unfitness for the Senatorship, it was disclosed after the primary that enormous sums had been spent to secure the votes that were cast for him. So his nomination is tainted by scandal that, if ignored by his party, will disgrace it for years to come. It is already an issue in the present Congressional campaign, and it will be cited by the opposition in the indictment which it makes against the Republicans in the national campaigns.

It would be better for the Republican Party to lose control of the Senate than to retain it by the vote of a man who is a liability rather than an asset to the national party. It is more important that the party clean house than it is to organize the Senate next year. It cannot afford to go into the Presidential campaign of 1928 with such a millstone hanging about its neck.

The professional politicians never look beyond the immediate election. Their support of Vare can be understood. But the rank and file of Republican voters, who look with pride on the record of their party, cannot afford to be so nearsighted. And the Republican business men, whose prosperity is fostered by Republican supremacy, cannot safely be a party to any program the execution of which is certain to endanger that supremacy.

The defeat of Vare this year would be one of the most telling blows that could be delivered to the Democratic plan of campaign in 1928. The election and seating of Vare is exactly what the Democrats are praying for. That and the election and seating of Smith, of Illinois, would put the Republicans on the defensive.
